OUTLINES.

In reply to the letter from the President, relative to the charges against Gov. Haskell, W. J. Bryan in his Ohio speeches charged that Mr. Roosevelt is using his office as a party asset, and that the only request he asks of him is a "Square Deal."——W. R. Hearst produced more letters calculated to cause a sensation in his speech last night at the convention of the Independence League in New York——Shipping interests were made extremely dangerous, due to a heavy fog, in the New York harbor yesterday——Two persons were killed at Duncan, S. C., last night, when Southern passenger train No. 41 ran into an open switch——There were no developments at Democratic headquarters as to the Haskell affair. Members of the committee said that his retirement or continuance as treasurer rested with Bryan and Chairman Mack——An absolute decree of divorce was signed yesterday in the case of Elsie F. Vanderbilt against Alfred G. Vanderbilt——Tang Shao Yi, the Chinese envoy, starts on his trip around the world. He is accompanied by the new minister to this country. His mission is looked upon by China as a very important one——Governor Haskell is on his way to Chicago to consult with Bryan and other Democratic leaders as to the charges made against him——In his testimony in the contempt case yesterday, Gompers in his testimony stated that Van Cleave has attempted to bribe him and that the then secretary of War Taft, had supplied the sentiment behind the injunction decree——The court spent yesterday taking testimony for the State in the trial of Davis for the murder of Dr. Rustin——The slats of the Roanoke fair grounds gave way yesterday and 1,000 persons were carried down, 25 being injured ——The will of Winfield Tucker of New York, was probated yesterday. It contained several large bequests to religious and charitable purposes——Governor Haskell expects to begin his tour of Ohio and Indiana October 5th. He will make no further statement about the Hearst and Roosevelt charges at present——New York markets: Money on call easy 1 to 1 3-4 per cent., ruling rate 1 1-4, closing bid 1, offered at 1, time loans very dull and heavy. Flour firm, a fair inquiry. Wheat strong, No. 2 red 1.03 1-2 to 1.10 elevator. Corn firm, No. 2, 85 1-2 elevator. Oats firm, 53. Rosin steady. Turpentine quiet. Cotton quiet, middling uplands 9.40, middling gulf 9.65.

The reception Kitchin has received in the West shows that the fight against him by the Craig men ended with the adjournment of the State convention.

In the divorce suit of N. C. Goodwin against his wife, nee Maxine Elliott, the complaint alleges desertion for over a year. There are no sensational charges.

Abraham Rayner, charged with complicity in the lynching of an old negro during the riots in Springfield, Ill., has been acquitted. Who expected a different verdict?

The Philadelphia Record gives Forager this hard knock: "Foraker having said the Confederate battle flags could be returned only over his dead body, they can now be sent back."

Bryan Must have broken his record for crowding many speeches into small space of time when on Wednesday he addressed twelve audiences in the one day in Ohio.

Miss Atlas Weiss, of Rogersville, Ohio, has just entered Wooster University. She is proud of the fact that she made the money to pay for her collegiate course by pitching base ball. She is known as the champion girl pitcher.

It remains to be seen whether it is only a temporary truce or a real peace between the two factions of the West Virginia Republicans. Both factions now say they will support the new candidate for Governor—William E. Glascock.

"Around Taft there is such a ruck and huddle of campaign managers and promoters that the public hardly sees the candidate at all," says the New York Times. Quite different is the manner in which Bryan is running his campaign.

Roosevelt is in the fight now. His reply to Bryan was a regular campaign document. The public may expect more such letters from him before election day, and there need be no surprise if he finally mounts the stump.

A Durham dispatch says the Republicans of that county have opened headquarters with Assistant District Attorney Giles as county chairman and in charge of the campaign. Were Mr. Giles a Democrat his conduct would be regarded by the Department of Justice as pernicious activity in politics.

CAMPAIGN IN EAST

Ex-Gov. Aycock to Speak to Bryan Kitchin Club Here Tonight.

NEXT WEEK'S APPOINTMENTS

Nearly Every County in This Section to be Visited—Great Rallies in Honor of Gubernatorial Nominee—Other Speakers.

The Democratic State campaign thus far has been confined largely to Piedmont and Western North Carolina, but beginning the coming week the East will begin to feel the impetus of the very vigorous campaigning that has been directed by State Chairman Eller from headquarters in Raleigh.

Indeed, so far as Wilmington is concerned, the big guns will begin to roar as early as tonight when ex-Governor Chas. B. Aycock, of Goldsboro, will address the Bryan and Kitchin Democratic Club of New Hanover in the Court House. County Chairman Furlong was advised only yesterday of the appointment of the ex-Governor here, so little time has been given for preparation, but it is certain that a large crowd will gather to hear this distinguished speaker, who is a favorite in Wilmington.

Hon. W. W. Kitchin, the Democratic nominee for Governor and the peer of any man in the State on the stump, will begin his tour of the East at Rockingham, Richmond county, on Monday, proceeding Tuesday to Lumberton, Robeson county, where a monster reception and horseback procession has been planned in his honor. From Lumberton Mr. Kitchin will come to Wilmington, speaking here at night in the Court House. The Bryan and Kitchin Club and the business men of the city are preparing to extend a most cordial welcome to the "next Governor" and his address will no doubt be heard by a very large crowd. On Thursday Governor Kitchin will speak in Southport. It will be court week there and a large crowd will be present. The Southport people are arranging a great welcome to the distinguished visitor. On Friday, Oct. 2nd, Mr. Kitchin will speak at Whiteville in the "State of Columbus," where the Bryan and Kitchin Club will receive their guest with one of the old-time Democratic rallies. The Delgado band, of Wilmington, was yesterday engaged to furnish the music for the occasion and it will be a great day for Columbus Democracy. The week for the Democratic nominee will be concluded on Saturday at Fayetteville, where a similar reception will be tendered the nominee. Monday following, Oct. 5th, the campaign will be resumed with appointments at Roxboro, Monday; Apex, Tuesday; Hare's Store, Johnston county, Wednesday; Clinton, Sampson county, Thursday; Newbern Friday; Morehead City, Friday at night, and Atlantic, Saturday.

Hon. W. C. Newland, Democratic nominee for Lieutenant Governor, is this week at Fremont, Goldsboro and Selma and next week will go into Raleigh Tuesday night, Sept. 29th. On Wednesday night, Sept. 30th, he will speak at Keener's, Sampson county; at Wallace on Thursday, Oct. 1st; and Butler's Store, Duplin county, Friday, Oct. 2nd. Accompanied by Hon. B. R. Lacy, nominee for State Treasurer, Mr. Newland will reach Wilmington Friday night where both will make addresses.

On next Monday night, Sept. 28th, opening of court at Southport, Hon. H. L. Godwin, nominee for Congress in this district, and Hon. H. L. Cook, of Cumberland, Democratic nominee for elector, will speak to the voters of Brunswick at their county seat, Mr. Cook then returning to the upper part of the district and Mr. Godwin continuing his itinerary to Bladenboro, Wednesday, Oct. 7th; Abbottsburg, Oct. 8th; Clarkton, Thursday night, Oct. 8th; Supply, Brunswick county, Saturday, Oct. 10th; Coats, Harnett county, Oct. 17th and at Duke, Harnett county, the same night.

In addition to these there will be other appointments announced from time to time and every voter will have an opportunity of hearing the issues discussed, so that they may vote intelligently in November.

A special invitation is extended to all Democrats of the county and visitors to hear ex-Governor Aycock at the Court House tonight. Attendance upon the meeting is by no means confined to members of the Club and the general public has a cordial invitation to be present.

Missionary at Kiangyin, China.

Miss Ida Albaugh, of Louisville, Ky., who has been appointed missionary to Kiangyin, China, is visiting Mrs. J. S. Crowley, No. 411 South Front street. Miss Albaugh came yesterday on the Seaboard train from Fort Valley, Ga. She is a trained nurse and will assist Dr. George C. Worth in the Worth Hospital, which was the generous gift of the Ladies' Missionary Union of Wilmington Presbytery. Miss Albaugh changes her residence and becomes a resident of Wilmington and a member of the First Presbyterian church, of this city.

PLANS TO ARREST FAILED

Telegram From Norfolk to Richmond Arrived Too Late to Intercept Joseph Collins, Watchmaker, Abandonment.

Joseph Collins, the white man of this city who figured so prominently during the past several days as the principal in the alleged sensational abandonment of his little two-year-old daughter in Norfolk last week, escaped the Richmond police yesterday morning when he passed through that city, upon advices from Norfolk, and so far as is known, has returned to his former home in New York, though he may have stopped in Washington to which city his ticket and that of his wife read when they left Wilmington night before last.

Chief of Police Williams, of this city, telegraphed the Norfolk chief as early as 8 o'clock Wednesday night that if Collins was wanted for abandoning the child, he could be apprehended in Richmond at 5:15 yesterday morning. There seems, however, to have been some miscarriage in the plans of the police of the two Virginia cities, for when the Richmond officers went to the train, they missed it and Collins proceeded unmolested. They made no effort to apprehend him further up the road as the train soon passed over the Virginia line and requisition from another State upon a misdemeanor would be difficult. The following telegram was received yesterday by the Star from Chief Sergeant H. Mallory Boush, of the Norfolk police department, in response to an inquiry to know if Collins had been arrested:

"Norfolk, Va., Sept. 24.—We sent a telegram to Richmond police authorities to arrest Collins but he caught the train out of Richmond before the telegram arrived. The police missed the train."

The child, it is understood, is being cared for at the home maintained there by the Society For the Prevention of Cruelty to Children until a permanent home can be provided for her.

DAY OF PRAYER AT BURGAW

Ladies Missionary Union of Wilmington Presbytery to Meet There.

The Ladies' Missionary Union of Wilmington Presbytery had mapped out a fine programme for the "Day of Prayer" to be held October 3rd in the Presbyterian church at Burgaw. At a recent meeting of the executive committee, in making out the programme, it was decided to have Governor R. B. Glenn as one of the speakers and accordingly he has been invited. Another speaker who is expected is Rev. Motte Martin, who is now on furlough. His work is in the Congo Free State, Central Africa. He has had some thrilling experiences and makes one of the liveliest addresses ever listened to.

Mrs. L. W. Curtis, who spent some years in the Laos of Siam, is also expected. She has written a most interesting book on that wonderful country. There will also be several local speakers.

The good women of the Ladies' Missionary Society of Burgaw have invited all the ladies who will, to come and participate with them in the feast of good things. A generous spread will be laid on the church lawn. The ladies of Pike Creek Presbyterian church and Hopewell Presbyterian Church will assist in this good work. It is hoped that delegates from all the Presbyterian churches in the Presbytery will be present that day and a most cordial invitation is extended. Mrs. Jackson Johnson, of Winnabow, Brunswick county, is president, and Mrs. A. D. McClure, of Wilmington, is vice president of the Union.

SAMPSON AND DELILAH.

Big Feature Film at Bijou Today—Automobile Races Tomorrow.

The always interesting Biblical story of Sampson and Delilah how the strong man leaned against pillars of the temple and caused them to topple down and how he was finally shorn of his power by yielding to the intrigue of the adventurous Delilah, was the feature film at the Bijou yesterday and so interesting did it prove for the large number of visitors at the popular little theatre, that it has been decided to continue it today and this evening. It will be especially instructive and interesting to children.

Tomorrow another big feature has been secured in moving pictures of the famous Dippe Circuit automobile races in France a few weeks ago. The high-speed machines are faithfully reproduced both in start, in flight and at the finish, while each accident along the route as chronicled in the daily press at the time, is faithfully portrayed. This will be one of the big offerings of the year in moving pictures.

IMMIGRATION OFFICE

William R. Morton, of Norfolk, Will be in Charge of Local Station Here.

TO BE OPENED AT ONCE

Large Shipping Interest Here During Cotton Season Makes This Step Imperative on the Part of the Government.

That the importance of Wilmington as a port is fast becoming recognized not only by commercial interests at large but by the United States Government as well is evidenced by the fact an immigration office in charge of a regular inspector will be opened here at once and maintained at least each year during the shipping season.

The following from yesterday's Norfolk Virginian-Pilot gives the official notice of the opening of the office here and it purposes:

"William R. Morton, in charge of the local immigration bureau, was yesterday notified by the department of commerce and labor that he had been designated as the official to take charge of the temporary immigration station to be established at Wilmington, N. C., which will be kept open from today up to March 1, next.

"The naming of Inspector Morton to look after the port of Wilmington is regarded as a high tribute to his efficiency. He will also have charge of the Norfolk and Newport News stations.

"Inspector Morton, a few days ago, recommended to the department that an inspector be sent to Wilmington as the cotton shipping season was about to begin and many foreign vessels would enter that port, bringing aliens who had to be inspected, and it was also necessary to have an inspector there to see that the immigration laws were observed. The answer to the letter was the designating of Morton for the place. Mr. Morton will leave this morning and remain for some time, returning here for a few days and probably assigning an inspector to Wilmington until he can return.

"Wilmington's exports are expected to place that port away up in foreign shipments. The close proximity of the cotton belt to that port means that thousands of bales of the fleecy staple will be sent from there to Europe this Winter."

MR. W. S. HEWLETT DEAD

Well Known Wilmington Citizen Passed Away Last Night—Long Illness.

Many friends, especially among the older residents of Wilmington, will learn with painful regret of the death of Mr. William S. Hewlett, which occurred last night at 11:30 o'clock at the family home in this city, No. 303 South Fifth street, after a lingering illness with paralysis which had confined him to his room for the past 19 months.

Mr. Hewlett was born on Masonboro Sound and was about 65 years of age at the time of his death. He removed to Wilmington early in life and during the war served with rare fidelity the cause of the Southern Confederacy in one of the companies which went from here into the Civil War. For 31 years until about ten years ago, Mr. Hewlett was miller and shipping clerk for Mitchell & Huggins, afterwards the B. F. Mitchell Co., one of the oldest mercantile firms in the city. Later until he was stricken with paralysis 19 months ago, he was with the J. C. Stevenson Co. Mr. Hewlett was a man of firm convictions and a true friend. His passing away will be sincerely regretted by many who knew him for his kindly manner and genial disposition.

Mr. Hewlett was married early in life in this city and there are now surviving to mourn their loss, his devoted wife, three sons and five daughters, all of whom have the sympathy of many friends in their bereavement. The children are Mr. R. A. Hewlett, of Portland, Oregon; Mr. J. Henry Hewlett, of Wilmington, and Benjamin Hewlett, of Milwaukee, Wis.; Mrs. D. T. Meade, of Sumter, S. C.; Mrs. N. F. Brandt, of St. Augustine, Fla.; Mrs. S. A. Greelish, and Miss Louise Hewlett, of Wilmington, and Miss Claudia Hewlett, of Holoyke, N. Y. All the absent ones were notified of their father's death by telegraph last night and until they are heard from, the funeral arrangements will not be made.

Mass Meeting at Southside Baptist.

Exercises have been arranged with an interesting programme for the Baptist Sunday School Mass Meeting, which will be held at Southside Baptist Church tonight at 8 o'clock. The evening's programme will begin with a song followed by the invocation by Rev. Fred D. Hale, D. D., and discussion of "Our Need, Loyalty of Teachers," by Messrs. G. E. Leftwich, R. B. Moore, C. C. Rice, John Thomas, J. A. Bryson, A. H. Pate A. L. Vann and J. W. Russ. There will be other pleasing features and a large attendance is expected.

—Mr. J. M. Solky and family have removed from the Beach and are now occupying their residence in the city.

PENNANT RACES EXCITING

Sensational Day Yesterday in Baseball Circles of New York—Standing of Clubs in Both Leagues Corrected to Today.

On the returns as so far officially passed upon by National League officials, the conclusion of the New York-Chicago baseball series finds New York still leading in the race by a margin of 13 points.

The leader's victory of yesterday adds one to their "won" column and makes up for the subtraction of the victory previously credited on the result of Wednesday's game, which was yesterday decided a tie. Chicago's defeat and Pittsburg's victory of yesterday place Chicago and Pittsburg on equal terms in second place and the standing this morning is as follows:

	W.	L.	Pct.
New York	88	50	.638
Chicago	90	54	.625
Pittsburg	90	54	.625

In the American League the race is made closer by the defeats of Cleveland and Chicago. Detroit was in a tie encounter with Philadelphia and is now only two points behind Chicago. St. Louis won and pulled up to within four points of Detroit. The standing Thursday's games included, is:

	W.	L.	Pct.
Cleveland	83	61	.576
Chicago	81	62	.566
Detroit	79	61	.564
St. Louis	79	62	.560

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Sept. 24.—After an exceptionally nerve-tingling two days for the baseball enthusiasts the New York-Chicago series in the National League ended today in a 5 to 4 victory for the home team. The game kept the immense crowd at a high pitch of excitement.

The dramatic and apparently uncertain ending of yesterday's game had sharpened interest in the last contest and especially in view of President Pulliam's ruling today that the umpire's decision that yesterday's game was a tie would stand. Further interest was added by the fact that Chicago had already played a game before the crowd arrived today—or rather had appeared on the field with no other team and no umpire on the diamond and had claimed that a 9 to 0 defeat should be recorded against New York. They relied in this, it was said, upon a rule which they construed as making compulsory the playing off of a tie game on the day succeeding it. Further they urged that the New Yorks should, under the rules, be fined $1,000 for failure to appear to play. The officers of the New York club, however, stated they had received no intimation from the Chicagos of their desire to play off the tie, and did not take the matter at all seriously. One of the officials called attention to the fact that the Chicagos appeared for the regularly scheduled game in spite of a statement that had been given out that the New Yorks were by the rules barred from playing until the fine had been paid, seemed to indicate that the Chicago club was not altogether in earnest in the matter.

But in the scheduled game there was no doubt of earnestness on both sides. At the opening New York put Wiltse and Bresnahan in the points, and Chicago Brown and Kling. New York scored promptly in the first, Tenney on a double by Donlin and Herzog on a hot infield single by Seymour. In the fifth they took their other three, Tenney and Bresnahan on a three-baser by Donlin and Donlin on a sacrifice.

Chicago bunched its four in the seventh. A single by Tinker scored Steinfeldt and a three-bagger by Kling brought in Hoffman and Tinker. Wiltse then retired in favor of Mathewson, and Howard batting Coakley who had replaced Brown brought in Kling after which Mathewson held the Chicagos hitless. Score:

Chicago .....000 000 400—4 7 2
New York .....200 030 00*—5 7 3

Brown, Coakley, Overall and Kling; Wiltse, Mathewson and Bresnahan. Time 2:00. Umpires Emslie and O'Day.

Philadelphia, Sept. 24.—The home team bunched hits on Savidge today and beat Cincinnati by 5 to 0. Earl Moore, formerly of the Jersey City Club, kept Cincinnati's hits scattered. Score:

Cincinnati .....000 000 000—0 7 2
Philadelphia ....021 200 00*—5 10 1

Savidge and Schlei; Moore and Doin. Time 1:40. Umpires Rigler and Owen.

Brooklyn, Sept. 24.—Brooklyn was again defeated today by Pittsburg by a score of 6 to 1. Willis at all times held his game safe. Score:

Pittsburg .....031 001 100—6 15 1
Brooklyn .....000 000 010—1 4 3

Willis and Gibson; Bell and Farmer. Time 1:37. Umpire Klem.

BOND ISSUE CARRIES

Every Ward Precinct and Township Gives Majority For Continuing The Improvement.

THE ELECTION YESTERD Y

Out of Total Registration of 1,546, Vote Was 958 For and 588 Against or Not Voting—Returns to be Canvassed.

By the decisive vote of 958 in the affirmative to 588 either against or not voting, the bond issue of $50,000 for continuing and completing the construction and improvement of the public roads and bridges of the county, was carried yesterday at the polls in New Hanover. Every ward and precinct in the county gave a majority for the issue, the total majority being 370.

The election was very quiet and except for the closing of the saloons during the day, the casual observer would not have known that an election was in progress. Considering that those who were opposed to the bonds, cast their vote by staying away from the polls, the vote was rather larger than was expected out of the total registration of only 1,546. Nearly all those who went to the polls were in favor of the issue and only 118 in the county who were opposed to the issue took the trouble to cast an actual ballot against the proposition. As previously noted, a majority of the registered vote and not a majority of the vote actually cast, was required to carry the bonds and early in the afternoon, the tallies kept at the various polling places showed that the bonds had won, as nearly all the votes cast were in favor of them.

According to the returns officially and semi-officially made last night to the Register of Deeds and Chairman D. McEachern, of the Board of County Commissioners, the vote in the several wards, precincts and townships was as follows:

Precinct	Reg.	For.	Agnst.
First Ward	263	126	52
Second Ward	179	106	14
Third Ward	291	170	11
Fourth Ward	216	149	6
Fifth Ward	347	200	23
Cape Fear	45	27	8
7-Mile Post	49	26	1
Delgado	94	86	1
Masonboro	49	47	0
Federal Point	13	11	2
Total	1,546	958	118
Necessary to carry			773

The returns from the election will be officially canvassed in the same manner as general election returns are canvassed next Tuesday at noon. The result will then be certified in due form and the Commissioners will offer the certificates for sale, the road work continuing as heretofore.

WILMINGTON TRUCKERS

Association Will Meet in Wilmington First Saturday in October.

The Wilmington Truck Growers' Association, recently organized by planters in this immediate vicinity and composed of subsidiary organizations in the several localities thributary to this city, will meet in the Court House here on the first Saturday in October at 1 P. M. and not on the first Monday in the month as erroneously announced heretofore.

The locals thus far organized at Castle Haynes and Wrightsboro are doing well and the outlook is for an enthusiastic and compact organization for mutual benefit. Other localities are expected to organize themselves into local associations between now and the date for the general meeting in Wilmington next Saturday week.

FORESTERS AT LUMBERTON.

New Court Instituted There Last Night—Delegation From City.

A delegation of Wilmington members of the Independent Order of Foresters, with State Deputy Bachrach, went to Lumberton yesterday, where the local team instituted a new court of this well known order. The delegation left the city on the 3 o'clock Seaboard train and returned to Wilmington last night at about 12:35 o'clock.

The installation exercises were the principal features of the evening, and throughout were interesting, the new lodge beginning with a splendid membership. This was followed by an entertainment prepared for the visitors, at which there were good speeches from Wilmington and Lumberton Foresters.

THE COTTON CROP.

The New Orleans Picayune of Monday last published the following as its weekly review of the present condition and outlook for the cotton crop:

"The past week has witnessed generally favorable weather, if the Cotton Belt be taken as a whole. In most Cotton States there has been an absence of rainfall to speak of, permitting good progress to be made in harvesting operations and facilitating the crop movement. In Texas, which because of its size and great cotton yield is of such vast importance to the cotton industry, there has been rather too much rain, although no claims have yet been made of excessive damage, although deterioration is reported.

"While the weather generally has been fair, tropical storms in the Gulf of Mexico have caused heavy rains along the gulf coast, and the excessive rains in Texas have probably been due to the influence of the storms. As a rule, however, such rains do not penetrate very far into the interior, except under unusual conditions.

"Despite recent good weather, however, the reports with respect to the crop have been quite as much tinged with pessimism as they were prior to August colored by optimism. This is commonly the condition of mind of most persons in the cotton trade at this time of the year, hence the wider divergence of views as to crop yield during September and October than during the earlier months of the growing season. There is a quite general disposition to reduce cotton estimates, but there exists the customary divergence of views as to the extent of the final outturn.

"It is probable that the ultimate size of the present crop will depend largely on the weather from now on until the crop is picked and marketed, and the date of the first killing frost. The history of past crops proves that more has happened to make or mar the crop during September and early October than during any preceding period. Good weather during harvest facilitates the saving of the lint that has actually been grown, and every day that the date of killing frost is postponed adds materially to the final outturn."

Of the rice crop it says that of Louisiana and Eastern Texas promises a good yield, although the river crop will probably prove to be somewhat smaller than was at one time expected; that the heavy rains in Western Louisiana and Texas are interfering with the harvesting and the grade is being more or less affected by the same cause; but on the whole, there is no reason to expect that the production will be seriously affected.

FOR THE RURAL DISTRICTS.

In a letter just received from Hon. H. L. Godwin, he gives his views on the needs of the farmers and dwellers in the rural districts and outlines the work he is doing ond the greater work he intends doing in the near future to increase the value of farming lands and to make rural life more attractive. It is needless to say that Mr. Godwin is doing a good work and one that will greatly benefit the people of his district.

His letter was a private one, not intended for publication, but we take the liberty of publishing the following paragraph from it, which shows Mr. Godwin's aims and purposes:

"I believe one of the most important questions that is now agitating the minds of the people is a system of agricultural education by which we may secure the drainage of swamp lands, good roads, good schools, and improvement generally to country districts, thereby making rural home life more attractive. The farmers have been neglected to a great extent, and it is my intention to do what I can to build up our section by educating the farmers. The Agricultural Department at Washington belongs to the people; it publishes quite a large number of books, documents and bulletins which are sent out and distributed among the people, but in many instances the farmers are too busy to read them, and I have decided to get the Agricultural Department to send experts to address the people and farmers on subjects in which they are vitally interested. I have just begun the work and I intend to continue it through every section in the district. Next Spring I intend to hold three or four meetings in every county, to be addressed by four experts on the most important subjects."

THE TUBERCULOSIS CONGRESS.

Dr. Richard H. Lewis, Secretary of the State Board of Health, writes the Star a letter regarding the great International Congress on Tuberculosis now in session in Washington, D. C. He wants public attention called to this most important meeting, composed of prominent men from all over the world who are interested in the war now being made on this fearful disease.

The Congress will be in session three weeks, but the week beginning next Monday, Dr. Lewis says, will be the most interesting and valuable for the reason that the seven different sections before which papers will be read and discussed will meet during that week only. He says the greatest men in the world in this line will be present. The membership fee is five dollars, which will entitle one to the transactions—four large volumes. Dr. Lewis closes his letter with this paragraph:

"This is the opportunity of a life time, for we will probably not have another World's Congress on this subject in the United States for a generation. Not only the medical profession, but large numbers of laymen are deeply interested in this most important subject and I trust many of our people will attend—if only for a day or two."

The Clarkton Express thus comments editorially on Marion Butler speaking in Columbus county last Saturday:

"The Honorable Marion Butler spoke in Columbus county Saturday. The idea that this arch conspirator should try to get votes for the Republican party in the good county of Columbus. Why its an insult."

That is putting it pretty strong; but Butler has read so many similar editorials about himself, and his hide is so thick that he does not mind it.

Durham keeps up her reputation for crime. Wednesday night in the outskirts of the town Mr. C. E. Mangum, white driving along the public road in a buggy, was attacked by three men who robbed him of over three thousand dollars. They opened fire on him, wounding him twice in the left arm. It is true the people of Durham were forming a vigilance committee.

A Newbern dispatch announces that arrangements have been made for a joint debate between Congressman Thomas and Mr. E. W. Hill, Republican candidate in the Third district. The challenge came from the chairman of the Democratic committee of the district and was promptly accepted. The schedule for the joint debate will be made public in a day or so.

"Now that the admiralty has arranged for wireless telephone communication with the fleet, the life of an admiral on the eve of a big battle will be made a burden."—Philadelphia Times.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—No one will gainsay the proposition that Mr. Hearst has put some ginger into the campaign, however, much or little truth there may be in his charges or whatever the outcome.—Raleigh Times.

—Senator Foraker must be in his dotage. In regard to his expressed declaration to stump Ohio as a free lantic for the Senate in view of his being ousted from the band wagon, a close political friend of his is quoted as saying: "The Senator has not yet realized what these revelations mean to his political future. He has had so much opposition in his career and has had so many successes in the face of bitter fights that he regards this as only another battle to be fought and won. His friends know that his political epitaph has been written, but none of us has the courage to tell him so. He will have to learn it from those not so close to him as I am." Even a political enemy may feel a pang of pity for the old South-hating fire-eating, bloody-shirt waver.—Charlotte News.

—The Observer will have to be excused from making war on Mr J. Elwood Cox during the remaining weeks of this campaign; he is too good a man and too useful a citizen to warrant it in trying to discredit him—a thing it could not do, anyhow, in the eyes of those who know him. But this fact is being and ought to be brought to public attention; that if he were Governor he would have the appointment of the State board of elections which appoints the county boards and they in turn the registrars. We have no doubt that Mr. Cox if Governor would appoint to the State board of elections men whom he thought honest and suitable but a majority of them would of course be Republicans and through them and their appointees in the counties the whole election machinery of the State would be turned over to the Republican party.—Charlotte Observer.

—The doings of Messrs. Foraker and Cannon are not the only troubles and annoyances in the Republican party in its campaign for the presidency and the control of Congress. While these are conspicuous, they are perhaps not the important annoyances that tend to destroy the harmony of the party and its strength before the people. There is a wide disagreement between the stalwarts and the stand-patters of the East on one side and the revisionist and reciprocity people of the West on the other side on the tariff question. The stalwarts frustrated currency reform in the last Congress by passing a spurious bill at variance with all rational currency sentiment of the country. They are now trying to do the same thing with the tariff. When the Dingley bill was made the rates were made 20 per cent. higher than necessary in order to make room for reciprocity. Reciprocity was thus provided for but the stalwarts and stand-patters have defeated every reciprocity treaty proposed. Therefore, instead of getting reciprocity, we have simply enjoyed a 20 per cent. raise on what should have been the regular duties.—Charlotte Chronicle.

—It has been charged that dealing in futures, in cotton, for instance, has shown that more bales of cotton were sold and bought in a single season than had been produced in ten years, and that therefore something was frightfully wrong when such fictitious transactions were reported as actual trading. Persons who hold to such a notion do not seem to realize that the same bales can be and are sold many times even in a single day, and that when each transaction is counted they aggregate astonishing amounts. Take the bank clearings and compare them with the actual amount of money in circulation in the United States. In 1907 the total domestic trade of the United States, as given by the New York financial journals, is estimated at $25,000,000,000, and yet the clearings of all the clearing houses in the United States amounted to six times that amount, or $154,000,000,000. The deposits in all the banks amount to $13,000,000,000, and yet the entire money in circulation in the United States in that year amounted to $2,70,000,000. It is easy to see that the great bulk of the business of the country is done without passing out paper currency or specie, but by handing out checks and drafts on the various banks. These checks, which are simply credits which are acknowledged by the banks, being counted as cash, and they aggregate large amounts in the daily settlement between the various banks, when in reality it may be that not a single dollar which they represent has been paid out or taken in.—New Orleans Picayune.

NEW YORK ALARMS THE G. O. P.

Republicans Seriously Threatened With Loss of Empire State.

(New York Special to Washington Post.)

"What are you fellows trying to do—scare us this early in the campaign?" inquired a man who is conspicuous in business circles here of an officer of the Republican National Committee this evening.

"What do you mean?" the latter asked in turn.

"Why, the newspapers are full of matter tending to show that Bryan has Taft on the defensive, is stirring up the Middle West against the Republicans, and expects to carry New York. Is that true or not, or are you folks planning a raid on our bank accounts?"

The Republican politician's answer is immaterial, for the point to this little colloquy is that a genuine scare has set in among the so-called big interests, particularly those with Republican leanings. Most of the news that has reached New York tells of Democratic aggressiveness in the States which are debatable—Indiana, Ohio, Kansas, Nebraska, Illinois, etc.

These tidings have been so consistently of the same general trend that at last Republicans have awakened to the fact that a real danger confronts them; that confidence begot of former triumphs may be misplaced and that Democracy is making headway which, if unchecked, will sweep Bryan into the Presidency.

Best the World Affords.

The Swine or the Flower?

Ah me! I saw a huge and loathsome sty,
Wherein a drove of wallowing swine were barred,
Whose banquet shocked the nostril and the eye;
Then spoke a voice, "Behold the source of lard!"
I fled, and saw a field that seemed at first
One glistening mass of roses pure and white,
With dewy buds 'mid dark green foliage nursed;
And, as I lingered o'er the lovely sight,
The summer breeze, that cooled that Southern scene,
Whispered, "Behold the source of COTTOLENE!"

"I recommend Cardui to my lady friends," writes Mrs. Mattie Christopher, of R. F. D. 72, Atlanta, Ga. "I think it is the best medicine for female trouble I ever took. It works like a charm. Before taking Cardui, I had suffered with female trouble for 20 years. I was irregular and suffered untold misery. I took all kinds of medicines, but none did me so much good as Cardui. Since taking it, I am regular, suffer no pain and am so much better, in every way. I cannot paise Cardui too highly. It is a wonderful medicine."

FOR MEN WHO CARE TO DRESS WELL

THE Barry Shoe

Of course, Father Time is a little bit too much for any shoe, no matter how well it is made or how worthy the materials may be, but he has a harder task when he tackles a pair of Barry Shoes, Union Made, than he does in disposing of any other shoe we know of.

That means that Barry Shoes will wear longer and hold their shape better than any other shoe you ever wore.

They are full of Style, as well—handsome, snappy, up-to-date shoes.

We recommend them strongly to the "men who care to dress well," and who seek comfort as well as style, and who want the best shoes their money can buy—there are reasons why you personally should wear Barry Shoes—come in and try on the shoes, and some of these reasons will be clear to you—buy and wear them and you will never wear any other kind.

THE EDUCATED MAN.

Not All of His Knowledge Comes From Books and Schools.

The most important part of education comes from intercourse with people. From this side comes the education in love and duty and service. The actions of people stimulate imitation and emulation. By these men grow in power and skill. From observation of the character of people men form ideals of character for themselves and are transformed thereby. Herein lies the consummate educative power in Christianity—the transforming power of the divine man.

According to this new idea, education is not merely receiving, but giving; not learning alone, but doing. The educated man is open eyed and open minded, quick to respond to influences from without, learning from all his experiences and growing in power as he grows in knowledge. Charles Kingsley said of his father that "he possessed every faculty but the faculty of using his faculties." He was not an educated man, although he was a very learned one.

Education is an individual matter. No two men can be educated alike in manner or degree. They respond to different influences and grow in different ways. One becomes educated by way of schools and colleges and life, another by life alone. The measure of a man's education is the measure of his use in the world.—George W. Martin in Boston Globe.

A COSTLY NAP.

Slumber That Led to the Death of King Charles I.

In the middle of Holborn once stood an inn, the George and Blue Boar, and there took place an incident which entirely changed the whole tale of England's history.

As twilight was falling in October, 1648, a very tired post boy mounted on a sweating horse pulled up outside the old inn. The lad knew nothing of the importance of the letters which lay in his post bag. His orders were to convey them to a point on the Great North road, where he would be met by other messengers.

But Cromwell's spies had followed him from the south coast, for England's liberty depended upon his dispatches miscarrying. The boy had some supper and afterward fell asleep, his head pillowed on his post bag.

While he slept Cromwell's men took the bag and found in it a letter from King Charles I. to the Scottish generals arranging for his rescue, an immediate advance on London and the arrest and execution of Cromwell and his friends. That same evening Cromwell had the fatal letter and determined on Charles' death.—London Tit-Bits.

Fish, Pen and Ink.

"One year I found a lot of cuttlefish that ran into the surf," said a worker on one of the California beaches. "I was riding along the beach, and I got a pole and rode into them and killed about twenty, I guess. Some were eight or ten feet long. I hauled them up and showed them for four or five days in my whale tent; then I sold them to the fishermen, who salted them down for bait, taking out the bills, eyes and pens, which I sold as curios. Each cuttle, besides a sac of indelible ink, had a pen a foot long, a beautiful object, as delicate and fragile as a feather pen. The eyes when hardened looked like pearls, and they are mounted as pins. The bills are chestnut color and look like a parrot's bill."

What Was Left.

"Mostly of Chicago" is the way a man described his residence. His characterization seems reasonable. When he was six years old, he cut off one of his toes with a scythe. When he was eight he shot off two joints of one of his fingers. He ran away from home when he was fourteen, and the frost of a winter night took off three more toes and the tip of his nose. At twenty-five he lost his entire right foot. A drunken half breed bit off an ear in the Klondike, a Dakota corn sheller took his left forearm, and since then he has lost three fingers, a joint from another finger and one eye.—Youth's Companion.

Almost a Death Struggle.

A large crowd had gradually formed around the two fashionably dressed and oblivious young girls, and at one time it seemed necessary to separate them.

"What can it mean?" said the stranger who had just come up.

"It took me," said the man addressed, "some time to learn; but, as I understand it now, one girl has been six months in Europe, and while she was gone the other one has learned to play golf, and they are trying to tell each other about it."—Life.

Flattered.

Editor (to Miss Oldgirl, age about forty)—Your work shows promise, but do you know, madam, good literary work is seldom done by a woman until she is thirty or thirty-five? Several years hence you will be able to write acceptable articles. Miss Oldgirl (as she leaves)—That was the most delightful man I ever met.

A Comparison.

"Ever seen congress in session?"

"No," replied Farmer Coboss, "but I know about how it looks. I hev a hired man who kin git as busy doin' nuthin' as anything you ever saw."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Only Undeveloped.

He—It has been said that a woman can make a fool of any man. Do you believe it? She—Of course not. The best she can do is to develop him.—Chicago News.

LANDLORD AND TENANT ACT

Case Just Passed Upon in State Supreme Court—Issue Not Presented.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 24.—The case of State vs. Wilkes, from Greene, just decided by the Supreme Court, and in which judgment against the defendant is arrested, is that in which Wilkes was convicted and sentenced for leaving his landlord in the midst of the crop making and owing the landlord for supplies advanced, the prosecution being under the Landlord and Tenant Act. The purpose of the appeal was to test the constitutionality of the Act, the charge being that it is unconstitutional as creating a class of peonage. However, on argument of the case on appeal it developed that the case was tried first in the Superior Court while the statute provides only a degree of fine and imprisonment that would give courts of justice of the peace original jurisdiction. It is for this that judgment is arrested and the case goes out of court. There is a very general impression, it seems, among lawyers that if the constitutionality of the act does ever get squarely before the court it may get a knock-out blow.

MISTAKEN IDENTITY CASE.

"Boots" Brown in Jail at Raleigh is Claimed by Mother as Another.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 24.—A negro woman claiming to be the mother of Willis Wright came here today to have a look at the negro being held here as "Boots" Brown, the murderer of Sarah Davis, colored, here seven years ago. He was arrested in Norfolk early in the Summer and brought here as "Boots," but claiming to be Willis Wright, and insisting that he was never in Raleigh until brought here as a prisoner charged with the murder.

When the woman was admitted to the jail and told to pick out her son from among the prisoners, she did this readily, insisting that the prisoner was Willis Wright and not "Boots" Brown. She is to be one of the principal witnesses for the defense when the case comes up for trial in the Superior Court at the Fall term. At the preliminary trial some weeks ago in in which prisoner was held without bond there were a number of witnesses who testified positively that he is "Boots" Brown, the murderer, he having been raised and well known in the vicinity of Raleigh.

—Friends in this city have learned with regret of the death of Mr. S. D. Pridgen, of Keith's Landing, Pender county, which occurred this week at the advanced age of 81. A widow and seven children survive him; also two sisters, Mrs. R. C. Woodcock and Mrs. Miles Costin, both of this city.

—An error was made yesterday in announcing the special meeting of the Chamber of Commerce. The special meeting will be held this morning at 11:30 o'clock for the purpose of considering new quarters and certain proposed amendments to the constitution and by-laws.

—A delightful reception was given last night in honor of Miss Kate Kronke, of Brooklyn, N. Y., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gerdes, on South Eighth street. Miss Kronke is the guest of the Misses Gerdes and will act as bridesmaid at the marriage of Miss Katie Gerdes, on October 7th.

—It should have been stated in an account of the building of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church manse yesterday morning that Mr. John Thomas was the contractor for the construction. It is one of the handsomest residences in the city and is quite a monument to the good work of the builder.

—Young Mr. James Prevatt, who it will be remembered underwent an operation some time ago in Minneapolis, Minn., for his eye-sight, has returned to the city little improved and expects to leave in a short time for the institution for the blind in Raleigh where he will learn the profession of a piano tuner. His friends in this city wish him every success in his efforts to equip himself for life's journey before the light has forever gone out of his eyes.

JEWISH NEW YEAR.

Services at the Temple This Evening at 6 O'Clock.

In commemoration of the Jewish New Year, the celebration of Rosh Hashanah will begin this evening at sunset, services being announced by Rev. Dr. S. Mendelsohn for 6 o'clock, and Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. The New Year's Day celebration is next to the most solemn and holy in the Jewish calendar and is marked by a general suspension of business with the Hebrews. The services at the Temple of Israel will be especially appropriate, a special programme of music being arranged in connection with the solemn celebration.

Following this celebration for ten days later will be the "season of repentance" and Yom Kippur as the crowning point of this most sacred season during the year. Members of the Hebrews in this city, as likewise throughout the world, are preparing to celebrate it with solemnity; to set aside all their business cares and gather in their several houses of worship with the incoming year to renew their allegiance to the God of Israel.

NEGRO ATTEMPTED ROBBERY

Bold Intruder Entered the Home of Hon. John D. Bellamy.

Detected in his attempt to rob the home of Hon. John D. Bellamy at corner of Sixth and Market streets night before last, a negro in hiding dashed from his place of concealment and made his escape after being pursued for some distance. It is supposed that the negro effected an entrance into the home while Mr. Bellamy, his son, Mr. William M. Bellamy, and his nephew, Mr. Jack Bellamy, were down town on a business engagement. Returning home about 11 o'clock at night, Mr. W. M. Bellamy by chance went into the kitchen and turned on an electric light, at the same instant the negro darted from his hidding place and ran by Mr. Bellamy before he had an opportunity to stop him, though he pursued him for some distance.

Mr. Hoefner's Fishing Tackle Found.

The remains of Mr. William Hoefner, who was drowned in Banks' Channel last Tuesday night, as yet have not been recovered, although there was a continued search yesterday, with the result that the fishing tackle which Mr. Hoefner was using when he fell into the channel was recovered by Owen Telfair, colored, about 25 yards from where the unfortunate man was fishing. There is now little hope of ever recovering the remains.

Sunday Afternoon Meeting.

The Y. M. C. A. all over the world on next Sunday will observe Bible Study Day and for that occasion the Wilmington Association has arranged to have Rev. A. D. McClure, D. D., teacher of the Bible Study Club here, speak at the first of the men's meetings which will be held at 5:30 o'clock. All men are invited. The Girl Choir of Grace M. E. Church will render the musical numbers for the meeting.

Merry Skating Carnival.

The gymnasium of the Y. M. C. A. presented a merry and most animated scene last night, the occasion having been the first evening the floor was thrown open for roller skating. A large number of members with their lady friends were present and thoroughly enjoyed the gay whirl while a number of spectators looked on from the gallery. This sport promises to be quite popular at the Association during the Winter.

The control of the Washington Life Insurance Company, of New York, yesterday passed from the hands of Levi P. Morton, Thomas Ryan and Harry Payne Whitney to a Pittsburg syndicate headed by William C. Baldwin, president of the Pittsburg Life & Trust Company. The deal was completed late in the afternoon and Mr. Baldwin was elected president, to succeed Tatlock.

CHINA'S NEW MOVEMENT

Special Envoy on Trip Around the World—Special Visit to Washington—Bringing Handsome Presents to Officials.

(By Cable to the Morning Star.)

Pekin, Sept. 24.—Tang Shao Yi left here today on his much heralded trip around the world. He is accompanied by Chung Men-Yiew, who is to succeed Wu Ting Fang as Chinese minister at Washington. This change in office probably will take place in December. Wu Ting Fang will receive Tang Shao Yi on his arrival at the American capital after which he will retire from the post of minister.

Tang Shao Yi is bringing a letter to the people of the United States from the hand of the Emperor of China thanking them for the remission of a portion of the Boxer indemnity by the Washington Government. Tang Shao Yi is taking with him a number of valuable presents for American officials. These include ten ancient porcelains, relics of the Manchu conquest, taken from the palace of the present ruling family at Mukden andother valuable porcelains and jades obtained in the Peking markets. The dowager empress is sending special presents to President Roosevelt as well as several valuable jades to Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, the President's daughter, in remembrance of Mrs. Longworth's visit to Peking in 1905.

The mission of Tang Shao Yi is replete with political possibilities, and its outcome is being regarded with great interest by some of the European powers interested in Manchuria.

The dowager empress received Tang Shao Yi in farewell audience last Monday. Previous to this he was decorated with the order of the double dragon, first class, a very high prefer.

Tang Shao Yi has been given plenary powers with the rank of ambassador, and this indicates the importance attached by the dowager empress and Grand Councillor Yuan-Shai-Kai to his mission. Tang Shao Yi will study the financial, industrial and political conditions in the countries he visits, giving particular attention to international relations and his reports will be used to elaborate the reforms promised the people of China under the new constitution.

It is felt by foreigners in Pekin that Tang Shao Yi is about to make an attempt to remove obstacles to China's freedom in Manchuria by getting American sympathy and support through American investment and American loan, which would not be popular with some of the powers interested in Manchuria. The mission has been charterized here in some quarters as a political blunder.

Admitting that it is impossible to continue them, owing to the public sympathy, Colonel W. H. Stewart, Commonwealth's Attorney of the Hustings court at Norfolk, asked Judge Bain yesterday to dismiss the remaining eight appeal cases growing out of the recent invasion of the Norfolk county jail by mob, who were after the alleged assailants of Mrs. Albert Powell, their object being to deal out summary justice. Two of the cases tried ended in acquittals.

The Republican organization of Georgia entered the political field yesterday when it filed with the Secretary of State a full list of electors for the National election. With this list there was issued an appeal to the voters of Georgia, asking them to cast their ballots for William H. Taft.

The Theatre

The average person does not conceive the expenditure incurred, the patience required, the obstacles to be over come, the dangers encountered and the planning necessary in collecting the wonderful programme of moving pictures to be exhibited by Lyman H. Howe at the Academy tomorrow, matinee and night.

To fit up a camera expedition to obtain the superb pictures of India alone means great expense merely for transportation. Then it must be remembered that these scenes which the audience views with every degree of comfort, were secured beyond the protecting influences of civilization and at the tender mercies of hordes of natives and the ravages of dreaded Indian disease. To obtain this reproduction the photographer had to face the dangers of frenzied fanaticism. The panorama of ancient ruins unrolled during a trip down the sacred Ganges, beggars description. These are the memorials of the past and impress the spectator with a sense of repose and dignity born of the antiquity of what he sees. In startling contrast to these scenes of ancient and alien India, are those of modern Australians engaged in strenuous and stirring sports and pastime. Picturesque Naples affords scenes that are partly modern, partly ancient, and very tumultuous. Some animals and birds which we regarded hitherto as stupid, reveal themselves in another feature as surprisingly sagacious and amusingly mischievous. Exceedingly interesting effects of Physical Phenomena, the grandeur of nature in Savoy (France); a thrilling Steeplechase in England; a new drill by the Reedham Orphans and many other features compose a programme which no one can afford to miss.

The matinee prices are 15 and 25 cents and at night 25, 35 and 50 cents. Seats are now selling.

VAN CLEAVE'S STATEMENT.

Says He believes Mr. Gompers Knew He Lied in Testimony.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, Sept. 24.—Mr. James W. VanCleave, president of the National Association of Manufacturers, who came here today to confer with Daniel Davenport and James M. Baker, counsel for the Bucks Stove and Range Company, of St. Louis, late tonight gave out a statement in reply to the testimony of Samuel Gompers in the contempt case. Mr. VanCleave said:

"I have never employed detectives or intermediaries to shadow Mr. Gompers or any other official of the American Federation of Labor. Neither have I offered him a bribe of any kind, nor have I ever had any connection with the men he claims that shadowed him and offered a bribe. Every reference made therein to me or action on my part is false, and I believe that Mr. Gompers knew it to be a lie when he made the statements. He seems to be trying to make a cheap martyr out of himself.

"I never have and never will employ any methods that are not straight, square and above board in my dealings with organized labor. I make this statement without equivocation."

FURTHER CHARGES BY W. R. HEARST

Independence League Convention Made Full Nominations in New York Last Night

EX-SENATOR J. L. McLAURIN

One of Letters Read Implied an Attempt to Defeat Tillman—Prod Into Governor Haskell Thrown Again.

(By Cable to the Morning Star.)

New York, eSpt. 24.—William R. Hearst, addressing tonight the State Convention of the Independence League party as the New York State branch of the National Independence party is officially known, renewed his attack upon members of both the Republican ahd Democratic parties, and pronounced another batch of letters which he said were written by or to John D. Archbold, of the Standard Oil Company.

One of the letters was addressed to Former United States Senator John L. McLaurin, of South Carolina, and there was also a letter from former Senator McLaurin to Mr. Archbold in which the writer declared he could "beat Tillman if properly and generously supported."

Mr. Hearst read also a letter from Representative Joseph C. Sibley to Mr. Archbold and a letter from Mr. Archbold to a "rep. Senator" whose name did not appear.

Renewing his assault upon Governor C. N. Haskell, of Oklahoma, treasurer of the Democratic National Committee, Mr. Hearst declared that not only was he a "Standard Oil tool and promoter of crooked railway but was one of the organizers of the steel trust." He quoted from what he said was a court record of a suit brought by John P. Bailey, Mr. Haskell's law partner, in Ohio, against the Illinois Steel Company and the Federal Steel Company, for services rendered by Mr. Haskell as attorney "and organizer."

Mr. Hearst also quoted from what he declared was a recent speech of Mr. Haskell's defending the Standard Oil Company, as "having done wonders in the country."

"We know," said Mr. Hearst, "that it has done wonders in the United States Senate."

The new charges were received with great enthusiasm.

Clarence J. Shearn, personal counsel to William R. Hearst who has taken a prominent part in the Independence League movement since its organization, was nominated by the convention for Governor. All of the officers on the ticket were filled by candidates chosen by a "committee on candidates," the slate being unanimously ratified by the convention.

Mr. Hearst received an ovation when he entered the hall and the band played "Hail to the Chief." Mr. Hearst addresser the convention in part as follows:

"You Independence party men of New York have every reason for patriotic effort in this campaign. One of the old parties has nominated Mr. Hughes, who throughout his term has served the great privileged interests with the consummate skill of a trained corporation lawyer.

"The other old party has nominated Mr. Chanler, who has been worn smooth in the past two years as the pocket-piece of Charlie Murphy.

"I have read letters to show the corporation in the Republican party. I have read letters and court records and affidavits to show the equal or even greater corruption in the Democratic party.

"The Republicans have at least repudiated their Foraker, but the Democrats cling tenaciously to their Baileys and their Haskells.

"Mr. Bryan sustains Mr. Haskell, and writes Mr. Roosevelt proudly claiming to be responsible for Haskell.

"Mr. Kern rushes to the defense of Mr. Haskell, although it would be highly appropriate for somebody to rush to the defense of Mr. Kern. Mr. Mack says that when he said he had gotten $300,000 he was only joking. Mr. Mack then, to be perfectly frank, admits that he lied and we, to be perfectly frank, admit that we don't know whether he was lying then or is lying now.

Mr. Bryan and Mr. Kern attack the Republican party for not prosecuting the steel trust.

"Perhaps they hope that Mr. Roosevelt will whip the steel trust out of the Republican party and into the Democratis party, as he did the oil trust, and that Mr. Mack will get any $300,000.

"If Mr. Roosevelt should drive out the steel trust, the Democratic party is quite ready to receive it, for this same C. N. Haskell, according to court records, is one of the men who helped to organize the steel trust.

Mr. Hearst here read the official record as to allegations in a suit against the Illinois Steel Company by John P. Bailey, ex-law partner of Gov. Haskell.)

"So it appears, not from my assertion, but from court records that Mr. Haskell is not only a Standard Oil tool and a crooked railroad promoter, but a steel trust organizer.

"No wonder he can get money for Mr. Mack, and no wonder Mr. Bryan and Mr. Kern do not want to relinquish so valuable a campaign treasurer."

Before reading a few more letters regarding the Standard Oil, Mr. Hearst read Mr. Haskell's opinion of that corporation expressed publicly in a speech at a banquet at Tulsa, Okla., in which he said that the Standard Oil had done wonders by the application of good sense to its business, by the application of genius and discovery of the component parts of the raw material, making oil products reach values that were never dreamed of a few years ago.

"We all know that Standard Oil has 'done wonders in the United States,' or at least in the United States Senate, continued Mr. Hearst. "We all know that Standard Oil 'by the application of genius and discovery' has developed some pretty 'raw material' in the organization of the Democratic party.

"As examples of methods 'that were never dreamed of a few years ago' I am going to read you the following letters:

"My Dear Senator:—I have your kind favor of yesterday. We have of course, noted your recent disagreeable experience with T. with the utmost interest. Think you have done just right in not being goaded by him into doing a foolish thing.

"I am greatly interested in the suggestion of the law practice and will see to it that it is kept in mind, with the hope that something may develop in which I can be of service to you in connection therewith. With kind regards, I am, Verry truly yours,

"JOHN D. ARCHBOLD."

United States Senate.

"Bennettsville, S. C., May 29, 02.

"Dear Mr. Archbold:—I have pushed my fights so vigorously that they have called on Tillman. I met him at Gaffney and beat him at his own game.

"I called his bluff, and now the fight is for two seats in the Senate instead of one. I can beat Tillman if properly and generously supported. There is no time to lose, however; I enclose my account of both meetings for your information. With kindest regards, I am, Yours sincerely,

"JOHN L. McLAURIN,

26 Broadway, April 21, 1903.

"Mr. Frederick L. Eldridge, First Vice President, Knickerbocked Trust Company, 66 Broadway, City.

"Dear Mr. Eldridge:—It gives me great pleasure to introduce to you hereby Senator J. L. McLaurin, of South Carolina, who desired to discuss with you some business questions of mutual interest. I cannot speak in too high terms of Senator McLaurin, for whom I bespeak your most kindly consideration. Very truly yours,

"JOHN D. ARCHBOLD."

"Senator McLaurin is a Democrat and Bailey is a Democrat and Bryan's man Haskell is a Democrat, but do not imagine that the Standard Oil Company is a narrow partisan concern. Not at all. It is fired by a noble spirit of independence. It is an independent as we are, and we, if we would preserve our liberties, must be as independent and non-partisan as it is."

From Senator McLaurin.

Columbia, S. C., Sept. 25.—Former United States Senator McLaurin was communicated with by long distance telephone at 1:15 o'clock this morning at his home in Bennettsville and the Hearst charges contained in the Associated Press dispatches were read to him.

Mr. McLaurin said he had no recollection of the letter dated 26 Broadway, December 12, 1901, in which reference is made to a "disagreeable experience with T."

Neither did Mr. McLaurin remember the letter dated Bennettsville, S. C., May 29th, 1902, in which it is stated that he could beat Tillman "if properly and generously supported."

As to the letter of introduction to the vice president of the Knickerbocker Trust Company, Mr. McLaurin stated that he recalled it very readily. He said that as president of the Brunswick & Birmingham Railroad, he desired an introduction to the Knickerbocker Trust Company, as that institution was the trustee of the bonds of the railroad, and he desired an interview with Mr. Eldridge in connection therewith.

WRECKED AT DUNCAN

Two Killed When Southern Train Ran Into Open Switch.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 24.—Two persons were killed and four others injured when Southbound passenger train No. 41 on the Southern Railway ran into an open switch near Duncan, S. C., late today. The engine and the baggage car and one coach turned over, the engineer and fireman being killed. Three passengers and the baggage master were more or less seriously injured. The train is a local which runs from Charlotte, N. C., to Toccoa, Ga.

William E. Glasscock will be formally notified today at Morganton, W. Va., of his nomination of Governor by the Republican State committee to take the place of C. W. Swisher on the ticket. He will accept the nomination and will open his campaign at Grafton Saturday evening. The Evening Post Chronicle of this place, an anti-Swisher paper, declared for Glasscock in today's issue.

Her Mild Ambition.

"You expect your boy to become a good man?"

It Can't Be Beat.

The best of all teachers is experience. C. M. Harden, of Silver City, North Carolina, says: "I find Electric Bitters does all that's claimed for it. Mr. Harden is right; it's the best of all medicines also for weakness, lame back, and all run down conditions. Best too for chills and malaria. Sold under guarantee at R. R. OPTICAL ILLUSIONS.

Striking Examples That May Be Observed In Daily Life.

Doubtless every one has observed while traveling by train that the trees or houses in the distance appear to be speeding along in the same direction as the train, while the nearer objects are fast receding. Many, too, have observed that the top of a level wall built on a steep incline appears to slope upward in a contrary direction to the hill itself at nearly the same angle to the apparent level, and some have curiously regarded the ghostlike gliding and vanishing of dark shadows while passing a double row of fencing, but the following are not so commonly remarked:

One might stand for several minutes watching the revolutions of the cups of an anemometer—for measuring the velocity of the wind—and still be puzzled as to the real way they are turning round. Gaze up at them when there is an uncertain breeze blowing. They revolve rapidly, and you are perhaps perplexed as to their direction. As the wind subsides you would expect to find it easier to tell the direction by the slower revolution; but, as a matter of fact, the difficulty is increased. With the varying speed your first impression is that such and such is the direction. A moment later you reverse that idea, and the longer you gaze the more it seems as if they are spinning round erratically in every possible direction, whereas, of course, they can only turn one way.

Standing immediately beneath a high wall of a building—the longer the wall the better for practical demonstration—many would aver on looking upward that it was not exactly perpendicular, but inclined toward them in a threatening manner. This illusion is the effect of perspective and would be seen to better advantage if you stood between two such walls which faced each other at short distance. — New York Telegram.

THE GONDOLA.

Its Gliding and Guiding Through Venice's Intricate Canals.

The gondola is so perfectly adapted to its purpose that it is like a sentient thing in the gondolier's control. It obeys the slightest impulse of the oar. Through the narrow and intricate lanes of Venice, with the sharp and baffling turns, it glides with unfailing accuracy. The boatmen have about ten different calls by which they announce their approach, as they come to a corner, the turn they will take in a crowd, their way to right and left and all that. And these calls, half song, half cry, echo day and night, and yet so musical are they that they seem to be merely a part of the brooding silence of Venice.

Indeed the wonder of Venice is how all things—the city and the sea, the boats and the people, the songs and the sky—combine to make one perfect whole, caressing and idle as one of Petrarch's sonnets, which one I care not. Here even death is not merely somber. It is friendly and familiar as well. I saw them put old Paolo to bed for the last time. He had been in his prime a stout gondolier of the traghetto of Santa Sofia, near the Rialto, but in old age was a ragged "hooker" of the gray. In his quarter, however, he was a respected man. Indeed to be old or to be a child is among the gondoliers a title to tenderness and respect. And so when a good man dies in the poorer quarters the neighbors combine and hire a brass band to celebrate his virtues.—Vance Thompson in Outing Magazine.

Sturgeons' Backbones.

From the dried backbone of sturgeon, which has the appearance of macaroni, an excellent Russian soup, called vesiga, is made. It is excessively nutritive and invigorating, almost as much so, indeed, as the famous beche de mar (not mer), otherwise the trapang, or edible sea slug. It is collected in large quantities throughout the Indian archipelago, especially to the eastward, for the China market. There are many varieties, such as the large scarlet trapang from Macassar, the Kuroke trapang from Borneo, the great black trapang from Leuconia and many more. Properly prepared, this is absolutely the most inspiring soup there is and is as superior to turtle as the latter is to water gruel. It costs about $2.50 per pound.

Why?

Is one always chilled to the marrow?
Is an explorer always intrepid?
Is a swoop always a fell swoop?
Is a statesman always eminent?
Is a newspaper man always a well known newspaper man?
Is a bargain always extra special?
Is drapery always clinging?
Is sweetness always cloying?
Is a ruffian always burly?
Is one always within an inch of death? Why not two inches?
And why, why, why, is a conclusion always foregone?—Cleveland Press.

Mutually Helpful.

Husband—Smikeson's wife is away, and I'm going over there this evening to cheer him up. Wife—Why don't you bring him here? Husband—Well—er—I'm not feeling very well and need a little cheering up myself.

Might and Mane.

Tom Hood, the punster, once described the meeting of a man and a lion, and in doing so he said, "The man ran off with all his might and the lion with all his mane."

Manner is much. A man always looks better when he carries himself well than when a couple of friends are trying to carry him.

WILMINGTON MAN PARALYZED FOR YEARS

Joyously Tells of Limb Restored By the Use of Andes' Great Oil.—Remarkable Demonstrations Last at Andes' Opening in This City.

Thousands greeted Andes, The Great One Minute Advertiser last night as he stepped upon his platform and in a short lecture told how and why Andes' Great Prescription cured catarrh, stomach, liver, kidney and bladder diseases and expelled germs and worms from the system. Andes' Great Oil especially prepared along the lines of restoring nerve inaction and suppressed circulatory functions in paralysis, rheumatism, stiff joints, drawn muscles and ligaments and for the restoring of hard of hearing. When Mr. Andes gave the invitation for any one to come to the platform suffering with the above ailments and he would make a limited number of demonstrations, showing how Andes Great Oil cured there diseases, quite a number came pressing forward.

J. P. Payne, of Dock street, stated that he had suffered with paralysis for two years; that he had made many efforts and used many remedies to regain the use of his limb but nothing did him any good and he gradually seemed to grow worse. Andes Great Oil was used on him freely for about ten minutes by one of Mr. Andes' assistants, when The Great Advertiser said, "Raise your arm, now bend it as I do!" This the man did, to his own satisfaction and to the evident surprise and delight of the audience, as he used his arm back and forth, raising it high in the air, he exclaimed, "Thank God, I can go back to work again. Nobody knows what it is not to be able to work, but the working man who has to work for his daily bread."

The next to receive the demonstration was Jas. Smith, of Flannon street, who came to the platform leaning heavily on a cane. He stated that he had his ankle badly wrenched in a fall, sustaining injuries from which he had suffered greatly and from which the injured joint was very slow to recover. Andes Great Oil was used on his ankle and in five minutes' time he sprang up from the chair, threw down his cane and walked briskly across the platform exclaiming that the stiffness swelling and soreness had all gone and he could walk and use his ankle as good as he ever could.

Mr. Andes announced that so many being unable to get a bottle of his medicines during his one minute sale from the platform, that for the convenience of the public, he had decided to place his remedies in every drug store in the city and all who wish to talk with him concerning the medicines could call at Robert R. Bellamy's drug store, corner of Market and Front streets, where he will have his headquarters during his stay in the city.

They buy, in addition to a fancy weave suit, a black thibet or cheviot, or a blue serge; and occasionally change off for a week, get the suit they're not wearing pressed, give it a litttle rest in the closet; and then put it on fresh and new looking.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Tarboro, Sept. 23.—In a freight wreck at Speed this morning between two Southern trains, Engineer Robert Ashworth, of Pinners Point, was seriously injured. Engine No. 368 and fifteen cars were entirely demolished.

—Sampson Democrat: As we go to press we hear that Mr. John H. Cooper, a student of the University, whose injuries we noted in last issue, is yet in a Baltimore hospital and resting much easier. No operation has been performed for him, and it is thought he will be able to come home in about a week.

—Dunn, Sept. 24.—Hon. W. C. Newland, Democratic candidate for Lieutenant Governor, addressed an enthusiastic crowd today at the opera house. He made a favorable impression and many went away stating that they were greatly benefitted and their faith in the principles of the Democratic party strengthened.

—Newbern Journal: The Journal is informed that there were five warrants issued the last blind tiger round-up and perhaps more, and reports say 42 in all. Justice of the Peace Hines issued 25 at one time, and Justice Barrington ten. There are a number of offenders spotted it is said but nothing like all of them have been arrested.

—Asheville, Sept. 24.—In superior court this evening Mrs. F. C. Watkins, of Black Mountain, was given a verdict against the Southern Railway Company for $4,000 for personal injuries sustained January 1, 1906. Mrs. Watkins started to board a train at Swannanoa Station when she stepped through a hole in the platform and sustained permanent injuries.

—Fayetteville Observer: It is with deep regret that we announce the news, received from Parkton this morning that Mrs. Preston Stamps is rapidly sinking, and is not expected to live through the day. She has been ill for the past 18 months. This will be peculiarly sad news to Cumberland people, who will remember Mrs. Stamps as Miss Mattie McQueen, daughter of the late Sheriff McQueen.

—Kenly, Sept. 23.—Condary Godwin, who lived near Moore's School house, eight miles north of this place, died late this afternoon from the effects of a blow on the head by his son, Henry Godwin, last Monday afternoon, which crushed his skull. The trouble was over a family row, and adds but another dark blot on the county of Johnston. Henry Godwin left for parts unknown yesterday evening. He is married and lives near his father. Dr. Rose, of Smithfield, will hold an inquest tomorrow morning.

—Fairmont Messenger: On next Friday at 2 o'clock P. M. there will be another meeting of the stockholders of the cotton storage Warehouse Co., for the purpose of discussing the advisability of transforming the warehouse into a brick hotel and bank building. Fairmont needs nothing at present in the way of building up the town, more than a good hotel building. It is very doubtful if the warehouse would ever be made to pay under present conditions.

—Troy, Sept. 23.—A large number of the faithful of Montgomery county heard "North Carolina's greatest private citizen," Charles B. Aycock, expound the gospel of Democracy here today. The court house was packed with enthusiastic men and women, and though Mr. Aycock spoke for nearly two hours there was not in evidence the least flagging of the eager interest with which the people heard the great speaker, quite the contrary, for the interest and enthusiasm were much greater toward the end than at the beginning.

—Wadesboro Ansonian: An interesting witness in court here last week was Westley Troughlan, an Indian, who has been living with Mr. Y. C. Allen of Lilesville for about 18 years. Westley is apparently a full-blooded Indian, high cheek bones and long coarse black hair. He is possessed of the proper copper color and remembers his mother very distinctly. He says that she was a full-blooded Indian but he knows absolutely nothing of his father. Westley came from Randolph county about 18 years ago and is very contented with Anson county.

—Charlotte Observer: Struck by an automobile driven by Chauffeur Scheuter at the corner of Trade and Tryon at the western end of the square last night about 7 o'clock, Rev. Harris Mallinckrodt was knocked down and dragged for perhaps ten feet beneath the car. The machine was brought to a stop in a few seconds and bystanders quicklylifted the car from the prostrate minister, who was unable to move in his uncomfortable position. He was assisted into the Burwell-Dunn drug store a few feet away, where his injuries proved to be not serious. He was rather badly bruised about the shoulders and back, but was entirely himself in a few minutes.

—Greensboro Telegram: In Guilford county Superior Court yesterday afternoon the case against Baxter Shemwell, charging him with carrying concealed weapons, was called and the defendant pleaded guilty. Prayer for judgment was continued. The case charging an assault with a deadly weapon upon Captain Smithers and Dr. W. P. Webb, respectively conductor and passenger upon the train upon which the assault was alleged to have occurred, were then taken up and the State announced its readiness to proceed. But the defense wanted to have the case continued, stating that the defendant knew of three witnesses who would corroborate his testimony. There was a lively tilt between the attorneys for the defense and those representing the State, the State contending that the case should be tried now as a number of witnesses had been brought here at considerable expense and besides the matter was one that would be better for all concerned if it were decided, and, furthermore, that people of the State would feel that the courts were protecting them from such men as Shemwell, who, counsel for the prosecution declared, had often given trouble before. Judge Jones stated that he felt that the case should be tried now, but as he was disposed to give the defendant full opportunity to have his witnesses here he would grant a continuance upon condition that the case which has been begun in Davidson county against Smithers and C. H. Patterson, charging them with assault upon Shemwell, be transferred to this county also. This the defendant agreed to and the case was set for the first day of the next criminal term, which will be on December 14th. Shemwell's bond was continued at $1,000.

Why is Sugar Sweet?

If sugar did not dissolve in the mouth you could not taste the sweet. GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC is as strong as the strongest bitter tonic, but you do not taste the bitter because the ingredients do not dissolve in the mouth, but do dissolve readily in the acids of the stomach. Is just as good for Grown People as for Children. The First and Original Tasteless Chill Tonic. The Standard for 30 years, 50c.

Just Exactly Right.

THE COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Sept. 24.—The cotton market was nervous and irregular today the main feature being the strength of October contracts which seemed to reflect the approach of notice day. The close was steady, net 4 points higher to 5 points lower. Sales were estimated at 125,000 bales.

The market opened steady at an advance of 2 to 4 points in response to the higher English spot market and rains in Texas. Trading was very quiet at the start and, following the favorable Western belt forecast, the market eased off to a net decline of 3 to 5 points under realizing and local pressure, but soon rallied again on covering by October shorts and rumors that considerable sales had been made from the local stock.

The advance carried October to 9.08 or 14 points net higher, but the latter months barely reached the initial figures owing to lessened apprehensions regarding the weather and in the late trading list eased off under profit-taking by early buyers and the absence of continued support from bullish sources. Private cables from Liverpool reported no change in the labor situation and no apparent efforts toward a settlement.

Detailed weather reports from Texas indicated no important precipitation except at a couple of points, but there is still some uneasiness over a low area northwest of the belt. There are rumors that fully 6,000 bales have recently been sold from the local stock to New England mills.

Receipts today were 43,377 bales against 35,269 last week and 32,495 last year; for the week 270,000 against 213,882 last week and 221,312 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans were 3,822 bales against 2,132 last year and at Houston 11,507 bales against 8,873 last year.

Spot cotton quiet; middling uplands 9.40; middling gulf 9.65; sales 518 bales. Futures opened and closed steady.

DRY GOODS MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Sept. 24.—Trade in cotton goods generally ruled quiet and the market is fairly steady on a low level of prices. Cotton yarns are in fair inquiry. Raw silk is easier and more active buying is reported. The demand for stock goods in men's wear hosiery continues very satisfactory.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Sept. 24.—The recovery in prices was substantially extended today in the stock market and the advance was much less irregular than the uncertain and the hesitating movement of yesterday. The market became furiously active and buoyant towards the end. Speculation sentiment was swayed almost entirely by the opinions of what was being done in the market by influential capitalists who are credited with having the market in control. Thus the whole list ran off rapidly after an opening advance when heavy selling appeared in the Hill stocks and St. Paul as it was assumed that this represented a renewal of the important liquidation in these stocks which was the herald of the recent slump. Later there appeared enormous buying orders in Union Pacific, Southern Pacific and Reading which were ascribed to the controlling interests in the summer's advance. When the market turned upwards the bears were routed and their further buying to cover shorts was a material aid to the bulls in lifting prices.

The defeat of the bears was helped by the announcement from the rostrum of the expulsion of the board members of the failed firm of A. O. Brown and Company for their operations of August 22nd. Less was heard of the present situation in the neighborhood of the stock exchange but traders assumed that whatever apprehensions may have been felt to prompt the heavy unloading of stocks early in the week had subsided.

Bonds were firm. Total sales, par value, were $3,064,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales today were 1,107,800 shares.

"SQUARE DEAL" FROM PRESIDENT

Bryan's Request in Answer to Mr. Roosevelt's Letter in Ohio Speech

SPENT MEMORABLE DAY

Charged That the President is Using His Office as a Party Asset—Pays Compliment to Taft at Latter's Home.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Cincinnati, O., Sept. 24.—"All I ask of the President is that he put into practice for a month and a half what he has talked about for seven years and that is a 'square deal.'"

Twice today William J. Bryan, Democratic candidate for President gave expression to this utterance, the first time in Dayton and again in this city tonight, to two of the largest audiences he ever has faced. It was not a square deal, he charged, for the President to pick out one Republican and nominate him over other Republicans and it was not a square deal for the President to use his office, which belonged to all the people, as a party asset. He added a new feature to his speech during the campaign by comparing the personal record of himself and Mr. Taft.

Memorable Day For Bryan.

After a memorable day in the history of campaigning in this State Mr. Bryan arrived in this city tonight at 7:15 o'clock from Dayton where he stayed several hours en route from Columbus. His train which made the run as a special at the rate of sixty-eight miles an hour, was decked with flags and bunting, placed there at the urgent request of employees of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton railroad. Accompanying Mr. Bryan were Judson Harmon, Democratic nominee for Governor; State Chairman Finley and a big escort from Cincinnati.

As the train carrying the distinguished Nebraskan pulled into the station through a guantlet of red fire, thousands of throats sent up a mighty yell of "Hurrah for Bryan."

The reception accorded the Democratic candidate on his way from Columbus was remarkable. Large crowds turned out all along the line, but it remained for Dayton to overwhelm him. So great were the crowds that he was compelled to deliver two extra speeches to street throngs that stopped street car traffic. He was showered with flowers and greeted with vociferous applause from the thousands of the city and surrounding points. During his speeches in the Victoria and National theatres at Dayton, Mr. Bryan read a telegram from Chairman Mack to Harvey C. Garber National committeeman. In this message Mr. Mack denied the story which had been circulated that as chairman of the National committee he had declared that there had been left over from the last campaign $300,000 or any other amount. Mr. Mack also asserted that he had not received from Governor Haskell or anybody else, any money from the Standard Oil Company or other corporations. Mr. Bryan corroberated Mr. Mack's telegram.

"In his speeches here tonight Mr. Bryan said: "As this is the home of my opponent, I desire to take occasion to express my high opinion of his character and accomplishments. I think that I pay him a higher compliment in assuming that he is able to conduct his own campaign than the President does in contesting with him the leadership of the party in the campaign. As Mr. Taft referred to my record, I feel that it is only fair that I should make a brief reply. "It is perfectly legitimate that both the public and the private records of candidates should be brought under inspection, for the private record is as much an index to a man as his public acts.

Taft's Official Record.

Mr. Taft and I have records and they are necessarily a part of the campaign. "In some respects Mr. Taft has been more fortunate than I. He has had opportunity to hold office and to show his conception of official duty. He has held appointive offices for nearly half his life and during a considerable part of the time the office was conspicuous. As a United States judge, as Governor of the Philippines and as Secretary of War, he has been before the public, and yet who will say that he could believe secured the Republican nomination on his record.

"It was the powerful support of the President that made him the nominee of his party, and the President seems to feel that the exigencies of the case require that the full support of the administration shall be given to Mr. Taft's candidacy.

"I have not held office to any great extent. Four years in Congress covers my official experience. I began life as a young lawyer, practiced for a few years in Illinois and then went to Nebraska. I had no rich or powerful friends to aid me. What ever distinction I have gained has been gained in the advocacy of the policies of Government which I have deemed best for the people and yet I think that you will agree with me that I have been reasonably successful. I was nominated for the Presidency by a National convention of my party and received the votes of 6,500,000 of people. Notwithstanding my defeat I was again nominated and again received about the same vote. After the lapse of eight years I have been nominated a third time, the nomination coming from the rank and file of my party and coming with a degree of unanimity that indicates that the principles which I have been advocating are acceptable to the party. His official record would not have secured him the nomination. I have been thrice nominated without an extended official record.

PRESIDENT'S SIDE ISSUES

Kern Takes Exception to Mr. Roosevelt's Letter and Severely Criticises Him—Says Attack Was Uncalled For.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Ellicott City, Md., Sept. 24.—"Mr. Roosevelt will find it quite impossible by the raising of side issues and the muddying of the water to diver the minds of the people from the questions that must be decided by their votes in November." In this language John W. Kern, the Democratic Vice Presidential candidate, concluded a discussion of the last letter of President Roosevelt to William Jennings Bryan, with reference to the charges made by W. R. Hearst against Governor Haskell, of Oklahoma, treasurer of the National committee, in a speech here tonight. He declared that the President had abandoned his original charges against Governor Haskell and had taken up a criticism of his official acts to cover his own embarrassment over his failure to work reforms in his own party.

"Mr. Roosevelt's last fulmination as to Governor Haskell only proves that his attack was premature and uncalled for," said Mr. Kern. "No such an assault was ever before made upon the chief executive of a sovereign State by the President of the United States. His original charge of criminality is abandoned and he now contents himself with a criticism of the Governor's official acts. So far as I am concerned, the incident is closed until some evidence is brought forward to substantiate the original charges. Mr. Roosevelt will not be permitted to divert the attention of the American people from the record of his party by such by-plays as this."

"The average man who reads can understand Mr. Roosevelt's anxiety to avoid a discussion of the acts and omissions of the Republican party during the past twelve years. It is doubtless humiliating to him that the dominating power in full control of his party has effectually thwarted all of his sporadic and intermittent efforts at reform.

"The Republican party in this campaign," Mr. Kern said, "will be judged not by what Mr. Roosevelt has said, or Mr. Taft now says, but by the record made by it in defying the will of the people and choking to death all of the reforms proposed for their relief."

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Guthrie, Okla., Sept. 24.—Governor Charles N. Haskell, treasurer of the Democratic National Committee, left at 5 o'clock this afternoon for Chicago, accompanied by State Treasurer Mentional committee and Mr. Bryan with tional ocmmittee and Mr. Bryan with reference to the charges made against the Governor by President Roosevelt and William R. Hearst. A thorough investigation of the charges is to be made.

Governor Haskell announced that he would return to Oklahoma before going to Indiana and Ohio on the campaign tour. He said, however, that the tour will not commence until October 5th, when he will deliver his first Ohio address at the county fair in Ottawa, his old home.

Rests With Mr. Bryan.

New York, Sept. 24.—It is learned that, notwithstanding the attitude of many National Committeemen the whole question of Governor Haskell remaining on the committee rests primarily with Mr. Bryan and National Chairman Mack and that nothing will be done until Mr. Bryan has made a careful investigation of the Haskell charges and given the fullest consideration to the facts. Mr. Mack said today that he had received no communication from either Mr. Bryan or Governor Haskell.

TOM WATSON ON THE STUMP.

He Attacks Southern Democracy and Denounces Bryan.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Cartersville, Ga., Sept. 24.—Thomas E. Watson, the People's party nominee for the Presidency in a speech here today, spoke of the "humiliating position of the Southern States in National politics." He charged that while the South contributes two-thirds of the votes which the Democratic candidates get in order to be elected, yet the Southern States get nothing in return because they are the slavs of one political party. Mr. Watson was particularly severe in his charges against Mr. Bryan concerning the questions of prohibition and social equality, declaring that he was in league with the liquor interests and that he sent his son and daughter to mixed schools in Nebraska.

SERIOUS FOREST FIRES.

Raging in Pocono Mountains—Much Damage Unless Rain Comes.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Sept. 24.—Forest fires near here are becoming serious. At Stauffers Inn in the Pocono mountains men and women are out tonight fighting the flames. Unless rain falls within the next 24 hours the mammoth ice houses of the Pocono Ice Company can hardly be saved. The fire tonight is reported to be within a half mile of the company's property. Travel by automobile on the mountain between here and Pocono is dangerous and many owners of these machines have given up the mountain trips.

James G. Woodard was for the third time nominated for Mayor of Atlanta at the Democratic primary held yesterday. His opponents were Joseph Hirsch and Thomas H. Goodwin. A full set of aldermen and councilmen were also selected. The nominations are equivalent to elections.

TRIED TO BRIBE PRES. GOMPERS

Federation of Labor President Makes This Charge Against VanCleave.

TAFT'S NAME INTRODUCED

By Gompers in the Injunction Proceedings Against Federation of Labor Officials—Gompers Testifies to Propositions Made.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, Sept. 24. — Samuel Gompers, President of the American Federation of Labor, today introduced the name of former Secretary Taft and made serious charges against W. J. VanCleave, President of the National Association of Manufacturers. The charges were made as a part of Gompers' testimony in connection with the proceedings against himself, Vice President Mitchell and Secretary Morrison, of the Federation in the Bucks Stove and Range contempt case. Gompers was at the time under cross examination at the hands of his attorney, Jackson H. Ranston.

In the case of Taft, Gompers in effect charged that he had supplied the sentiment behind the injunction decree, while the direct charge was made that VanCleave had had Gompers and other Federation officials shadowed by detectives and had undertaken to have Gompers bribed to desert the cause of organized labor and join its enemies.

Ralston's efforts were directed toward showing a counter conspiracy by the manufacturers to destroy trades unionism. He read the portion of Taft's Presidential nomination acceptance speech bearing on the anti-injunction plank and commenting upon the extract. Mr. Gompers said: "It is substantially the basis of this injunction suit and these contempt proceedings under that injunction."

After giving the details of his own pursuit by detectives, Gompers told of being apporached in New York by a man named Broughton Brandenburg, of New York, who, he said, had attempted in 1907 to bribe him in the interest of Mr. VanCleave. "He said," Gompers continued, "that he was friendly to me and he thought that Mr. VanCleave and mystelf should have a better understanding and offered to bring about a meeting between us to establish more agreeable relations."

Gompers stated that he told Brandenburg that he would be glad to meet VanCleave as it had always been his policy to encourage friendly conferences in matters involving labor disputes. After Gompers returned to Washington he said that he received several communications from Brandenburg and stated that this correspondence had led to an agreement for a meeting in New York. He was accompanied to New York by Vice President Duncan and Huber, both of whom had advised him to carry out the agreement for a conference.

Relating the particulars of the second meeting in New York Gompers said Brandenburg disclosed to him his purpose, saying that he knew it to be the intention of Mr. VanCleave to destroy his (Gompers') character, but that he, Brandenburg, had pursuaded VanCleave that it would be better in the interest of VanCleave's purposes to make an ally of Gompers, and to prevail upon him to betray the secrets of the Federation of Labor; "revealing," Gompers added, "whatever information I possessed which might reflect detrimentally upon labor organizations."

"He said," continued Gompers, "that VanCleave had agreed to this proposition and he had undertaken to suggest to me that I could permit myself to be re-elected President of the Federation, in order to prevent the election of Vice President Duncan, and that after some little time I could resign. He assured me that I would be given a good lump sum and that VanCleave would guarantee me beyond question that I would be cared for for the rest of my life, even going so far as to tell me that the guarantee should be underwritten.

"He said that I could deliver lectures in opposition the labor movement and that if I did not receive as much as five or six thousand dollars a year, VanCleave would make up the difference."

"I told him," said Gompers, "that it was difficult to believe that VanCleave would make such a proposition and that I must have further proof of his sincerity. Another meeting was arranged, and at this meeting Brandenburg showed me checks, drafts and vouchers on official letterheads of the National Association of Manufacturers and under the signature of VanCleave which were made payable to Brandenburg."

"I told him I would consider the proposition," continued Gompers. "I did not reject it, because I wanted him to continue under the belief that I might accept. Of course I was just as determined then as I am now and always have been to be true to myself, to my conscience and to my fellows."

He stated that he had related all the details of this conversation to Vice President Duncan and Huber.

Mr. Davenport characterized the narration as "scandalous matter" and gave notice that he would move to have it stricken from the records.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 24.—J. W. VanCleave, President of the National Association of Manufacturers is not in the city, but when The Associated Press dispatches telling of the testimony of Samuel Gompers in the contempt proceedings against him at Washington were taken to Mr. VanCleave's office, an unequivocal denial of the charges contained therein was made by F. C. Schwedtmann, who explained that he is secretary of Mr. VanCleave as President of the Manufacturers' Association. "Not a secret meeting of the executive board of the National Manufacturers Association has been held," said he, "that I have not attended. I can say with full authority that the charges made in the testimony of Mr. Gompers are false. It is possible that unscrupulous men have approached him under the pretense of being representatives of Mr. VanCleave, but for such men, if such there be, Mr. VanCleave is in no manner responsible.

"Various detective agencies have come to Mr. VanCleave with officers to shadow labor leaders. and unscrupulous men have sought to be the intermediaries between the National Manufacturers Association and labor leaders, suggesting that by the corrupt use of money the members of the association might obtain fair treatment. But to all such offers Mr. VanCleave has given a positive refusal."

DAVIS-RUSTIN MURDER TRIAL.

Yesterday Spent in Taking Testimony For the State.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Omaha, Neb., Sept. 24.—All day was spent hearing testimony in the case of Charles Edward Davis, who is charged with the murder of Dr. Frederick Rustin. Nearly a dozen witnesses were called, but only two of them, Dr. J. P. Lord, Rustin's former professional partner, and Miss Hannah Dineen, maid at the Rustin home, were material.

Both of these witnesses testified to having seen a man who answered the description of Davis in the vicinity of the Rustin home and Miss Dineen testified that two half-smoked cigars and some white tablets were found on the porch following the murder. Dr. Lord repeated his identification of Davis as the man he met while answering the call from the Rustin home.

Mrs. Abbie Rice, who has said that she was in a suicide pact with Dr. Rustin, was in the court room. Tomorrow Mrs. Rice will be the principal witness. She is expected to recite again the tragic story told at the coroner's inquest. Mrs. Rice declared that she intended returning to her home in Des Moines as soon as she was released and that she would probably take up the occupation of a nurse.
